

Design-a-Disc Competition

Wanted: One brilliant, new disc design for a special school edition of Auckland Ultimate discs.

The prize? A snazzy pair of Five Ultimate Shorts and two discs featuring your very own design. Plus of course, the kudos of winning.

The winning design will be printed on discs that are to be used specifically for selling to school students and schools.

Specific things your disc design must include:

- It must have a MAXIMUM of 2 colours in the design.
- Design must be suitable to print on a WHITE disc.
- It must include the words "Auckland Ultimate" somewhere in the design.
- Design must be original and cannot include copyrighted material (examples of copyrighted material include cartoon characters, corporate logos, and mascots).

The most important thing in submitting a design is that the design specifications are adhered to. The following link has a well presented design specifications guideline for one to follow. Note that Auckland Ultimate uses the Hot Stamp option. Hot Stamp, Hot Stamp, Hot Stamp. Please read carefully: <http://discraft.com/art.html>

However, if you're struggling to submit the design according to the specs on the discraft site – don't be put off. Just send us your design image in whatever digital format you can and if it wins we can get it sorted to meet the print requirement.

Feel free to work together too, but good luck splitting the prize.

Entries close on 21 June 2013 and designs must be submitted to Rebecca at schools@aucklandultimate.org.nz
